

6th Grade Spelling Words

adequate	Internet users should use adequate virus protection.	administration	The school administration planned on doing more fundraisers for the school.
admire	We admire your tenacity.	agitation	She was wringing her hands in agitation.
astonish	Your curious questions never fail to astonish me.	attention	How long is your attention span?
cancellation	There has only been one school cancellation this morning.	clumsy	The toddler was clumsy but cute.
collection	Do you have a collection of key chains?	comedy	My favorite comedy show is on tonight.
convention	The convention was supposed to be three days long.	decorate	Will you decorate your home for your party?
deduction	The tax deduction was for donating to charity.	destination	The train's final destination was San Francisco.
destruction	The fallen crane caused destruction to a row of houses.	determination	If you have determination, you will succeed at anything you do.
distance	The school is quite a distance from your home.	endure	The new teacher had to endure a lot of misbehavior.
generation	Which generation are you in your family?	honesty	Integrity and honesty are important to being a good person.
incentive	Some teachers offer candy as an incentive to hand in homework.	infection	The viral infection had been easily contained with antibiotic.
insulation	My Grandpa will put extra insulation in his attic to save energy.	injury	His knee injury kept him out of the football game.
lemonade	We sold lemonade from our driveway.	magnify	I will magnify the results so that you can see them better.
method	There was a new method by which we were supposed to complete our work.	modern	I think your home has a very modern design.
occupation	What kind of occupation do you want to do someday?	morale	The morale of the team was high after the pep rally.
prescription	The prescription would expire in three months.	orientation	Did you go orientation on the first day of school?
reaction	Did you see Molly's first reaction about the good news?	property	The pool toys are his personal property.
recommendation	I hope Mrs. Cook writes me a good recommendation for the study abroad trip.	reception	Was your family at the wedding reception?
relaxation	What do you do for relaxation or fun?	reconcile	Later this evening, we should reconcile our bank statement.
situation	Is there some type of situation that needs to be addressed here?	reflection	It's always good to save time for reflection of the day's events.
swimming	Bob loved swimming in the summer.	reluctant	We were reluctant to tell him the truth.
thunderstorm	The thunderstorm scared the pets.	solution	I finally figured out the solution to the complex math problem.
turmoil	The city was in turmoil after the riots.	strict	My Dad is not strict at all.
tissue	Could you pass me a tissue?	television	The television always has to stay off until my homework is done.
investigation	The investigation didn't last very long.	vouch	I vouch for the quality of my products